CHICAGO DAILY TRIBUNE.

KAY, MEDILL & CO., PUBLISHERS. OFFICE IN THE TRIBUNE BUILDINGS, 51 CLARK STREET. TERMS—EIGHT DOLLARS PER YEAR

VOL. XI. CHICAGO FRIDAY MORNING MAY 7 1858. NO. 282.

DAILY TRIBUNE.

Friday Morning..... May 7, 1858.

[By the JOINT STOCK COMMERCIAL Co.]

Printers Festival.

Many of the craft, this morning, look their usual ruddy, the hot may be attributed to the festival of the National Typographical Union held at the Richmond House last evening. Breakfast was not over with the compositors until a o'clock in the afternoon. Weakly they quit their beds this morning.

The Kansas Election Board.

Secretary Denver has been formally appointed and appointed as Governor of Kansas. Mr. WILSON, appointed Secretary. This completes the Board of Commissioners for the purpose of locating the Lecompton land grant. The Board consists of—DENVER, Gov. WISE (the District Attorney,) HIGBY, (the Speaker of the House,) and DAVIS, (President of the Council.) The first two constitute a quorum and may be expected to do all the business. The fifth of the Board effective is left to them also.

The Student Affair at Ann Arbor.

ANN ARBOR, Mich., May 3, 1858.

Dr. George W. Beasle has until recently been a student of the University, and has been strictly a member of many of the various societies connected with the college. A few of students connected a plan of giving a public initiation to a chosen society, which was to have come off Friday of last week. Rest and wine were provided for the occasion. Some of the guests arrived, and nine students and himself met at the study room of a part of the number. The ceremony was performed, and all the choice partook of the liquors and became very much intoxicated, and sank very much the worse. The rest of the company, however, kept sober, and when they found that

DAILY TRIBUNE

NO. 61, SOUTHCLARK STREET.

CITY OF CHICAGO.

Rotary Meeting. ..... May 1865

Statement of the state matter.

Certain parties, to prevent misapprehension, have asserted that the Legislature, for the completory organization of the Militia of this State. We know of no such intention, and believe that the Legislature will not be disposed to make any change in the present system. The Militia system is the only State, is a well-regulated militia by Courts-martial, &c. &c. &c.

DAILY TRIBUNE.

COMMERCIAL

CHICAGO WHOLESALE MARKET.

CHICAGO, Saturday Evening, May 3, 1856.

We make up our report full six hours earlier than usual to-day, so as not to interfere with the Printers' Banquet which takes place to-night, and consequently our sales are somewhat meagre, closing at

The attendance on 'Change was good, inquiry for wheat brisk, though holders of cargoes were still firm in their demands, refusing to accept less than 104 free on board, but buyers refused to take any at more than 10c, and sellers to some extent gave way.

No change to notice in corn, and receipts were not very large; 50c on board was obtained for a lot of river to-day. This would seem to be a decline, but we do not view it in that light.

Oats were not very likely, and sold at a further decline.

Flour was dull, and not a sale reported up to the Freights seem to be giving way somewhat. The ship Montpelier was chartered for oats to Buffalo at 2½c.

The following was the receipts by rail and canal:

Flour, bbls	2,427	Grass Seed, lbs	200
Wheat, bu	11,000	Hides, No	13,000
Corn, bu	11,000	Hides, lbs	25,000
Oats, bu	2,000	Pelts, No	2,000
Barley, bu	97	Cattle, No	200
Rye, bu	1,000	Hogs, No	2,000

Shipments below:

Flour, bbls	1,000
Wheat, bu	20,221
Corn, bu	6,000
Oats, bu	16,000

FLOUR—Receipts light; 2,000 bbls sold at $5@5 50 for extra Indiana and Wis; $4,500@5 for double extra; $4,250@4 50 for extra State; $4,000@4 25 for extra spring; $3,500@3 75 for spring extra; $3,250@3 50 for spring; $3,000@3 25 for common spring; $2,750@3 for inferior spring; $2,500@2 75 for spring extra; $2,250@2 50 for spring; $2,000@2 25 for common spring; $1,750@2 for inferior spring; $1,500@1 75 for spring extra; $1,250@1 50 for spring; $1,000@1 25 for common spring; $750@1 for inferior spring; $500@750 for spring extra; $250@500 for spring; $100@250 for common spring; $50@100 for inferior spring; $25@50 for spring extra; $10@25 for spring; $5@10 for common spring; $1@5 for inferior spring; $0@1 for spring extra; $0@0 for spring; $0@0 for common spring; $0@0 for inferior spring; $0@0